

AVA MeditAegean is a modern Greek Agora, a multi-sensory transporting venue bringing dining experience and pleasure together in a refined and spirited atmosphere.

Meaning life, water, island, bird in Greek, AVA is a celebration of splendor, freedom, escapism and joy, where genuine hospitality, delectable food and vibrant atmosphere combine to entertain the senses and transport the guests to celebrate the night away.

The concept was born around the idea of creating a unique experience that is meant to be shared with friends and loved ones

OUR MANTRA IS ‘PAREA’

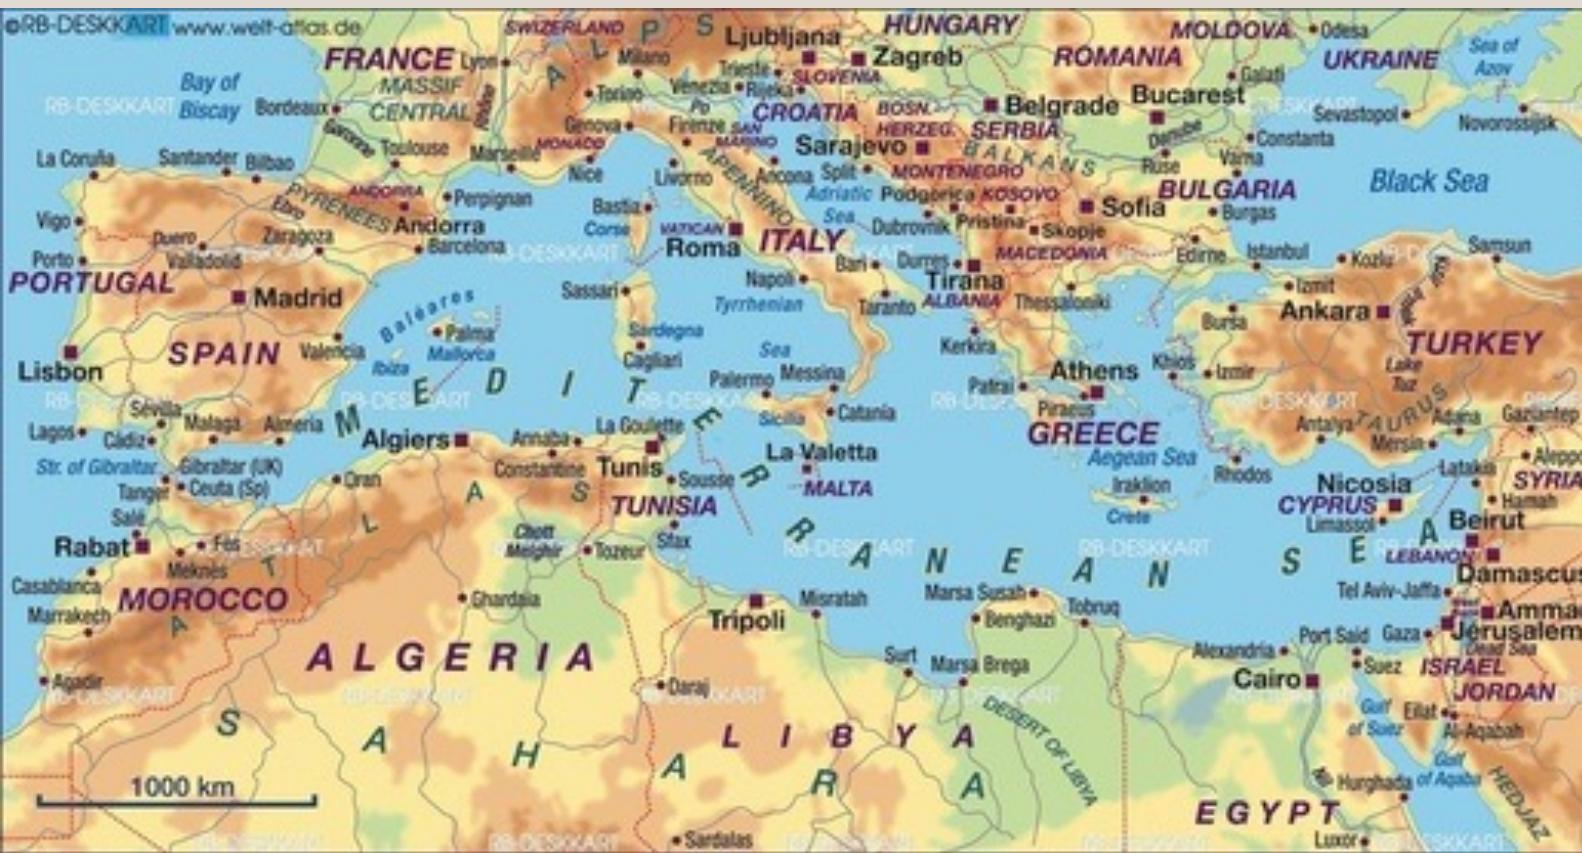

Parea: (Gr.) A Parea in Greek culture is a group of friends who regularly gather to share their experiences about life, their philosophies, values and ideas.

The Parea is really a venue for the growth of the human spirit, the development of friendships and the exploration of ideas to enrich our quality of life that is all too brief in time.

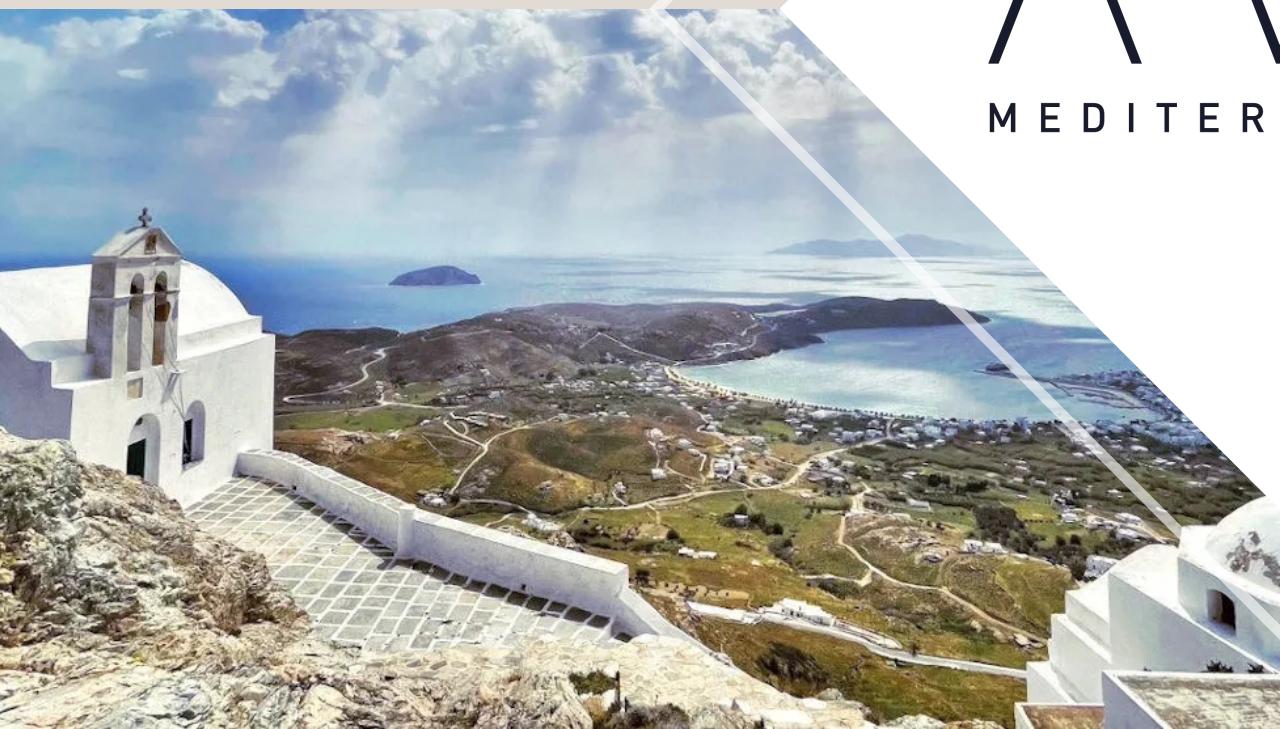

In Greece, the Parea is a long-lasting circle and cycle of life nourished by the people who participate

Design elements

- Columns
- Mediterranean arches
- Traditional limestone plaster
- Grey tone
- Natural elements: wood, rope, woven rattan
- Collaborations with local art galleries and artists

ETIENNE MOYAT

LUCAS CASTEX

COMPOSITION ONIRIQUE
Lucas devant la porte de son atelier, dans les Landes. Le sculpteur travaille différentes essences qu'il grave, taille et brûle pour aboutir à des œuvres insolites.

Savoir-faire
SCULPTEUR, DE CURIOSITÉS

Lucas Castex cultive l'amour du bois. Dans son atelier en pleine nature, il expérimente et crée des pièces qui semblent tout droit sorties d'une contrée lointaine. Rencontre.

The woody and sensually-transporting signature scent opens the doors to an olfactory paradise around the warm Mediterranean and Cycladic coasts, during summertime.

It was developed with Perfumaire, in Miami.

The fragrance opens with sparkling top notes of bergamot and mandarin. Milky fig sap brings some clean green lippidity to the heart notes, magnified by touches of vanilla.

The scent closes lying on sensuous cashmere woods and suede, all wrapped into sun-kissed musks.
